PLATINUM JUBILEE CAKE COMPETITION

To celebrate the Queen's 70th anniversary, Bakewell Agricultural & Horticultural Society (BAHS) is holding a cake competition, which is open to all amateur bakers.

THE RULES:

- Junior Class competitors must be age 12 or under.
- Cakes must be a single tier and can be a single sponge without any filling.
- Cakes must consist of a homemade plain 8 inch/200cm round sponge.
- Cake must be decorated with a theme representing this royal celebration.
- Cakes can be coated with fresh cream, buttercream, ganache or fondant.
- All decorations must be edible with the exception of ribbons.
- Cakes can be presented on a cake board or plate.
- Senior class entries will be judged on overall taste, presentation and originality of design and decoration.
- Junior class entries will be judged on presentation and originality of design and decoration.
- Entries will be judged on the day at Bakewell Country Festival where the winners of both classes will also be announced (Sunday 17th July 2022).
- Entries will be judged by Robert Stordy, a multi-award-winning chef and former lecturer in culinary arts at the University of Derby.
- Cakes must arrive by 9:30am on the day.

ENTRY FORM: Please bring this with you on the day and leave it under your cake board.
